To Whom It May Concern:

Leah Somerville is an outstanding young woman with a bright future ahead of her. It is my pleasure to write a character recommendation for Leah, and I highly recommend her for any position or endeavor that she may seek to pursue. She will be a valuable asset to her peers, our community, and every group she is a part of.

I have known Leah for several years, but I have had the opportunity to build a close relationship with her over the past three years. Leah is a member of our youth group at church, so my husband and I are very fortunate to get to see and know a different side of her. Leah is very active in our youth group and she is always willing to volunteer when needed. Her work ethic and compassion for others make her a role model for her peers. She is an outstanding example of a leader for our younger students. Whether it's volunteering at trunk or treat, serving food at Jesus Prom, or playing in our worship band, we can always depend on Leah to show up.

Leah has innovative ideas and she is willing to work with any and every person she is asked to work with. She is punctual, compassionate, and values the opinions of others.. There is no doubt in my mind that Leah will succeed in whatever path she chooses to take. She has a job, she is active in the church and community, and she maintains an excellent GPA. It's quite impressive to watch her in action: Leah works diligently to achieve goals. She is one of the most motivated young women who never succumbs to the pressure of school work and external commitments.

I am certain that Leah will continue to have a positive impact on our world throughout her future. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions at: ruthanndavis84@gmail.com or feel free to call me at 270-528-6445.

Sincerely,

Ruth Ann Davis
